For all the news of the day, presented in the most attractive form, of course you will turn to read The Tribune, and no other paper.

The Chicago Tribune.

The Tribune's selection of prize list fully justified the expectations of the public. The thousand-and-one competitors in this contest, and more coming, it is stated to be grand all.

VOLUME XLVIII. FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1888. PRICE TWO CENTS

THE LOVEJOY DEFECTION.

SELLING OUT THE PARTY.

FOREIGNERS INTERESTED

LIFE IN A GREAT CITY.

BUREAU OF THE MARKETS

Prices Advance Somewhat and More of Wall Executed.

The Chicago People Rally and Stand Through the Speculator's Effort to Bull the Market—Cotton Was a Feature—An Export Sale Also Noted—The Bigbee—The Propaganda Without Enthusiasm and Convictions in the Backwoods.

A good illustration of the healthy of stock speculation in this city is that most of the business of Judge Brown in the court of the Forty Second Congressional was received yesterday. A bullish undercurrent had a telegram a few minutes after 9 o'clock stating that he had granted a temporary injunction against the enforcement of the Commissioners' schedule of rates, and the information was immediately passed along to a number of large operators. The effect was to start a new buying movement which was evident for half a hour before the opening of trade, and that result of it have been some of the buyers are making only cash of the market within a short time, and with the first, however, were taken. The general view seem to be that the decision of Judge Brown will be sustained on appeal, and he sought right and left. It is thought that the law was a little doubtful as to the constitutionality of the schedule, but the impression that the decision will be sustained. The information was, however, more

...LWAY EMPLOYE...

...

...

The Tribune.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1896.

Gen. Elsenor has been nominated unanimously for re-election by the Republicans of Hancock county. Gen. Elsenor is a Democrat.

Mr. Bryan's speech at Lincoln last night was a repetition of his Chicago speech, with a few additions. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the people, and that the Republican party was the party of the trusts. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the masses, and that the Republican party was the party of the classes. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the poor, and that the Republican party was the party of the rich. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the workingmen, and that the Republican party was the party of the capitalists. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the farmers, and that the Republican party was the party of the bankers. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the debtors, and that the Republican party was the party of the creditors. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the many, and that the Republican party was the party of the few. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the future, and that the Republican party was the party of the past. He said that the Democratic party was the party of hope, and that the Republican party was the party of fear. He said that the Democratic party was the party of progress, and that the Republican party was the party of reaction. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the people, and that the Republican party was the party of the privileged few. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Constitution, and that the Republican party was the party of the usurpers. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Declaration of Independence, and that the Republican party was the party of the Declaration of Dependence. He said that the Democratic party was the party of Jefferson, and that the Republican party was the party of Hamilton. He said that the Democratic party was the party of Jackson, and that the Republican party was the party of Biddle. He said that the Democratic party was the party of Lincoln, and that the Republican party was the party of Davis. He said that the Democratic party was the party of Bryan, and that the Republican party was the party of McKinley. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Democratic party, and that the Republican party was the party of the Republican party. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the United States, and that the Republican party was the party of the trusts. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Union, and that the Republican party was the party of the corporations. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Constitution, and that the Republican party was the party of the Supreme Court. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the country, and that the Republican party was the party of the city. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the South, and that the Republican party was the party of the North. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the West, and that the Republican party was the party of the East. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the whole country, and that the Republican party was the party of a part of the country. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the future, and that the Republican party was the party of the past. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the present, and that the Republican party was the party of the absent. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the living, and that the Republican party was the party of the dead. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the white, and that the Republican party was the party of the black. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Caucasian, and that the Republican party was the party of the Mongolian. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Aryan, and that the Republican party was the party of the Semite. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Gentile, and that the Republican party was the party of the Jew. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Christian, and that the Republican party was the party of the Mohammedan. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Protestant, and that the Republican party was the party of the Catholic. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Trinitarian, and that the Republican party was the party of the Unitarian. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Baptist, and that the Republican party was the party of the Methodist. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Presbyterian, and that the Republican party was the party of the Episcopalian. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Congregationalist, and that the Republican party was the party of the Lutheran. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Universalist, and that the Republican party was the party of the Swedenborgian. He said that the Democratic party was the party of the Jew, and that the Republican party was the party of the Gentile

...LY CLAIM SPECKLED.

A PILGRIMAGE OF RIVERS.

KING AND EMPEROR MEET.

THIS MANTEL I SELL FOR

$38.00!

LESS TWENTY PER CENT.

20% Discount on all orders for Wood Mantels received during the next ten days.

CHAS. L. PAGE,

327 & 329 Wabash-av.

Seasonable References.

There's days and days yet you can get solid comfort from our light weights and thin goods—we've plenty of them.

You should see the wonderful improvement in our Children's Clothing over former seasons. Kilts are particularly fine.

Wanamaker & Brown,

State & Adams-sts.

LEA & PERRINS

SAUCE

SPENCERIAN STEEL PENS

Are the Best.

Durability, Evenness of Point, and Workmanship.

ARENDS KUMISS

RED HOT LEAVES

HATS.

25c Box

BEGINNING OF A STATE.

THE NEWS

Stock Bro

July Investm

BUSINE

Edward L. Brewster & Co.,
Stock Brokers

NOTICE.

July Investments.

BUSINESS.

Great Opportunity!
For Positive Bargains
In every department of a $300,000 stock.
CARPETS | PARLOR SUITS | CURTAINS
MATTINGS | CHAMBER SUITS | DRAPERIES
LINOLEUMS | FOLDING BEDS | RUGS, ETC.
MUCH OF IT ONLY Slightly Damaged!
by Smoke & Water
That may NEVER OCCUR AGAIN. If you are going to want anything in these lines within the next five years it will positively pay you to buy during this great Fire Sale.
BADLY DAMAGED PRICES
Sale on everything, while most of the goods are, for all practical purposes, equal to new fresh goods.
Chicago Carpet Co.
Cor. Wabash-av and Monroe-st.
All our FIRE-DAMAGED Goods on sale at 200 WABASH AV. for what they will bring.

MONTREAL
The Great Lake Michigan Route
Who Discovered Me?
GOODRICH STEAMERS
CHAMBERS MORTON TRANS. CO.
The Santa Fé Route
Chicago to Kansas City
MICHIGAN CENTRAL

THE CITY.

IN BRIEF.

Joseph Stevens, A. D. Alvord, Eugene Semmes, W. J. Spencer, Edward Slaughter and A. Bowdoin, Mississippi members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, arrived in the city last night. Today and tomorrow they will be engaged in examining the system.

The assignments contemplated by Receiver Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., of the Chicago, Peoria & Western Railway Company, which were announced yesterday, have been withdrawn, and the receiver will continue to operate the road.

Judge Gresham has agreed with the city to put a portion of the expense of managing and controlling the market under the care of Fielding Lee, assistant corporation counsel, who will be paid $2,000 a year for his services. The remainder of the expense will be borne by the city. Mr. Lee will be appointed by the Mayor, and will be subject to the approval of the Board of Public Works.

Assistant Sanitary Engineer Allen, who has charge of the drainage canal, has received notice that he will be transferred to the Water Department, where he will have charge of the engineering corps. This change is made necessary by the passage of the bill by the Legislature, which takes away from the Sanitary District the power to appoint engineers. Mr. Allen will be succeeded by Assistant Engineer Bowen.

Assistant Sanitary Engineer Allen, who has charge of the drainage canal, has received notice that he will be transferred to the Water Department, where he will have charge of the engineering corps. This change is made necessary by the passage of the bill by the Legislature, which takes away from the Sanitary District the power to appoint engineers. Mr. Allen will be succeeded by Assistant Engineer Bowen.

Edward B. Butler, Chairman of the Cook County Democratic Committee, has appointed the following committee to arrange for the reception of Governor Altgeld, who will arrive in the city on Monday: Edward B. Butler, Chairman; Thomas Carney, Michael Ryan, Thomas Gahan, Thomas Foley, Thomas Hoy, Thomas Cullerton, Thomas Hoyne, Thomas Gallagher, Thomas Hogan, Thomas Hennessy, Thomas Hayes, Thomas Hoban, Thomas Hughes, Thomas Hanley, Thomas Hagerty, Thomas Hoffman, Thomas Hoffman, Thomas Hoffman